

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE: April 21, 2020

Contact: Kyle Easter, kyle@lavenderforstatesenate.com

AFL-CIO & UAW Endorse Deb Lavender for State Senate

Kirkwood, MO - Democrat State Rep. Deb Lavender, who is challenging State Sen. Andrew Koenig in Missouri's 15th Senate District, today welcomed the endorsement of Missouri's AFL-CIO and UAW.

"As a representative of Missouri's working families, we are excited to endorse Deb in her race for state senate," said Mike Louis, President of the Missouri AFL-CIO. "Deb is a proven champion of the causes that help Missouri's working class."

"I am honored to be endorsed by these incredible organizations," said Lavender. "I am proud to support working families in Missouri in my three terms in the House and look forward to continuing that work in the Senate."

The Missouri AFL-CIO represents over 500,000 union members and retirees. It is a federation of unions that are affiliated with the national American Federation of Labor – Congress of Industrial Organizations (AFL-CIO). The Missouri UAW

Deb Lavender is running for election in Senate District 15 which includes municipalities within west and south St. Louis County. Deb has represented House District 90 since 2014. She is an active part of the Kirkwood community working as a physical therapist and sole owner of an outpatient physical therapy clinic, Deb built her professional reputation based on results, and is recognized as a leader in her field.

###